

Soccerwise® Try then Buy

Soccerwise® offers a 'Try then Buy' option for new participants that want to experience a Soccerwise® training session before committing to an entire module.

In order to partake in 'Soccerwise® Try then Buy' participants must adhere to the following:

1. Participants (or Parents / Guardians) must first complete and sign the 'Soccerwise® Medical / Registration Form' prior to the commencement of the trial training session.
2. Participants must pay Soccerwise® immediately after the trial training session the following:
  - If the participant (or Parents / Guardians) decides they do not wish to continue training with Soccerwise® then they only need to pay Soccerwise® for one (1) training session (the cost of which would have been advised before the trial training session via email).
  - If the participant (or Parents / Guardians) decides they wish to continue training with Soccerwise® they will be required to pay Soccerwise® for the full training module (the cost of the training module will have been advised before the trial training session via email).
